London, May 26.—Michael Barrett, alias Jackson, the Clerkenwell explosionist, was executed to-day.

A formidable revolt exists in Senegal.

News Items.

CHARLESTON, May 26.—Arrived.—Steamer Champion, New York. Sealed.—Steamer Maryland, Baltimore. Gen. Canby to-day issued an order removing 13 of the 18 Aldermen of Charleston, and appointing persons to fill the vacancies. Under the new organization, there will be 7 negroes on the board.

Richmond, Va., May 26.—Chief Justice Chase having assented to June 8 as the day for the commencement of Jeff. Davis trial, if impeachment had been decided by that time, it is understood to-day that the trial will certainly take place then.

New York, May 26.—At a meeting of the Baptist Home Mission Society, a report in favor of reconciliation between the Northern and Southern Baptists was adopted. The Southern delegates were invited to the platform. Dr. Jeter, of Richmond, made a warm Union address.

Washington, May 26.—2 P. M.—In the House, the Woolley affair was filibustered to the hour for the court. In the court, a motion to adjourn to June 23d, was lost. The court then proceeded to vote on the articles, and defeated the 2d and 3d, by the same vote as on the 11th—35 to 19. After the vote on the 3d article, the Court adjourned sine die.

Ann. H.—Changes that the President there, then being no vacancy in the War Office, authorized Gen. Thomas in writing to act as Secretary of War, the Senate then being in session, and with intent to violate the Tenure of Office Act and the Constitution.

Ann. III.—Is like the second, except that it alleges that the President appointed Thomas Secretary of War without the advice and consent of the Senate, and without authority of law, and with the intent to violate the Constitution.

6 P. M.—The court met at noon. A motion to proceed with the remaining articles was lost—28 to 26. A motion adjourning to the 23d June was lost by a tie vote. On the second and third articles resulting in acquittal, a motion adjourning the court sine die prevailed.

In the Senate, Anthony, Willey and Van Winkle denied newspaper reports that Chase had endeavored to influence their votes; and Fessenden denied his identity with the proposed third party, and announced his determination to support the Republican nominees. Adjourned.

The excitement in the Court this morning was intense. On all the preliminary questions, Ross voted with the majority, and moved an amendment to the motion adjourning the Court to the 1st September. It was thought these votes indicated that Ross had gone over. The grave question turned on his vote. Ross rose from his seat pale, but otherwise gave no indications of excitement.

In the House, the Speaker announced that the functions of the impeachment managers had ceased; when a resolution, continuing them as a Committee to continue corruption investigations, prevailed. A protest that the Committee investigation, in which a minority is unrepresented, was unparliamentary, was over-ruled by the Speaker; the House controlled or could entrust investigation to whom it pleased. A motion to add two members who had voted against impeachment, was tabled, on Butler's motion—60 to 51.

Woolley is confined in the room of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. His crime is a refusal to answer certain questions of the impeachment Committee.

AUTHORIZATION.

NO. 1,680. TREASURY DEPT., OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY, WASHINGTON, May 11, 1868.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The Carolina National Bank of Columbia," in the city of Columbia, in the District of Richland and State of South Carolina, has been duly organized, under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking under said Act.

Now, therefore, I, H. WILAND R. HULBURD, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The Carolina National Bank of Columbia," in the city of Columbia, in the District of Richland and State of South Carolina, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand (Seal of the Comp.) and seal of office, at the City of Washington, this eleventh day of May, 1868.
